

North America's most important design fair for commercial interiors opened its doors from 13 to 15 June. UPis1 goes America: yesterday, one of the USA's most important design exhibitions, NeoCon, came to an end. The UPis1 was presented by Interstuhl in line with the theme of design and proved to be a real visitor magnet in the showroom. NeoCon took place for the 48th time this year in Chicago. The trade fair attracts design enthusiasts from all over the world. Interstuhl was in attendance with a wide range of products and took advantage of the opportunity to engage in personal dialogue.
