

On 4th September Interstuhl had an open house event with about 350 guests in and outside the showroom in Kopenhagen. Interstuhl was serving good homemade barbecue sausages with bread and traditional German beer. Participants of the event were architects, dealers and end customers. The feedback on the event was very positive and the visitors were very much interested in the Interstuhl products and tested all our new products.