

Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit (2013)

This movie just had its international premiere in London and is going to be released in Germany on 27th February 2014. Movie Release: Wednesday, 27th February 2014, Germany 'Jack Ryan: Shadow Recruit' revolves around the young Jack Ryan (Chris Pine), who discovers and thwarts a plan developed by financial terrorists. The story is placed in the aftermath of the events of 11th September 2001 and follows Ryan to Afghanistan, an experience which has left him with deep emotional scars. Soon he switches to the Financial Intelligence Unit of the CIA, where he works as an analyst and is guided by Harper (Kevin Costner). Ryan believes to be on the track of a Russian conspiracy that could bring down the U.S. economy and coverts from an analyst to a spy. All at once he has to fight to protect what is most important to him - his relationship with his fiancée Cathy (Keira Knightley). The movie was directed by Kenneth Branagh ('Thor'), who also plays an acting part. Besides Keira Knightley, Kevin Costner and Chris Pine, David Paymer and Peter Andersson also play a role. The screenplay was written by Adam Cozad and David Koepp. Our Silver 262S received a prominent placement and can be seen in the office of the enemy situated in Moscow. Trailer, please see as follows: The movie just had its international premiere in London. It is to be released in Germany on 27th February 2014. Lenn Kudrjawizki, Director of 'Thank you Mr. President', also plays a role.