

After the successful introduction during the Orgatec 2010, the event "md select it!" will take place again this year. On the second day of the exhibition (24th of October 2012), architects, interior decorators and interior design planners will be invited to a communicative evening in "die kunstbar". Starting at 18.30 o'clock at this hip location under the cathedral's forecourt, there will be cocktails, fingerfood and inspiring conversations as well as 15 current products on the themes functional chair, light and desks.