

ACADEMY 2018

FASCINATION INTERSTUHL

Let us take you into the world of Interstuhl to understand what we do and why. Learn about the opportunities we can provide with our people and products in order to strengthen your product knowledge and expertise. We will give you a platform to get to know our product portfolio with training on the products and workshops related to the products. You will experience our holistic approach to movement and healthy seating for the wellbeing of working people – from our own factory workers, to customer advice beyond the chair. Widen your horizon together with our internal and external specialists and benefit from their knowledge in your daily business.

TARGET GROUP

For new dealers or new sales people who want to know more about Interstuhl and its philosophy about german engineering, innovative product solutions and satisfied clients in the centre of all activities.
